Inspired by your passion for fresh food

Gourmet hand-pressed burgers

Burgers are among the most popular foods in the UK. They've been a staple on British barbecues and hugely popular in food trucks and at food festivals. This has meant that customers now want to try different flavours when buying their burgers. So let Verstegen help you add variety and value to your counter in the easiest way possible.

Our Hamburger Mix, Vero Binding and Colour Stabiliser are all gluten-free, contain no MSG or any declarable allergens. This means that you can make a simple, delicious burger that doesn't require any allergens to be declared.

Capitalise on the growing trend for street food and 'gourmet burgers' by offering new styles of a British classic. Keep your burgers looking rustic, and filled with strong flavours to add incredible value to your range.

You'll impress your customers and get those repeat orders coming in.
